1. TERMS OF USE

MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD
Effective Date: 9 November 2026
Website: https://www.mrmit.co.za
Website: MR M Blog
Jurisdiction: Republic of South Africa

1. Introduction

Welcome to MR M Blog, an online platform operated by MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD.

These Terms and Conditions govern your access to and use of our website, including articles, tutorials, educational resources, comments, user accounts and other content published on the platform.

By accessing or using this website, you agree to comply with these Terms and Conditions. If you do not agree, please discontinue using the website.

2. Purpose of the Website

MR M Blog provides information, educational resources and articles relating to:

- Software development and programming.
- Artificial Intelligence (AI) and emerging technologies.
- Web development and application development.
- Cybersecurity and information technology.
- Software engineering and database management.
- Digital innovation, technology trends and tutorials.

The content is intended for educational and informational purposes.

3. Acceptable Use

Users agree to use this website responsibly and lawfully. You may not:

- Use the website for unlawful, fraudulent or malicious activities.
- Attempt to gain unauthorised access to the website, its database or administrative systems.
- Upload malicious software, viruses or harmful code.
- Interfere with the website's functionality or security.
- Publish defamatory, abusive, discriminatory or misleading content.
- Impersonate another person or organisation.
- Use automated systems to scrape, copy or overload the website without permission.
- Attempt to compromise other users' accounts or personal information.

MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD reserves the right to restrict or terminate access where these conditions are violated.

4. User Accounts and Registration

Certain website features may require users to register an account. Where registration is available, users agree to provide accurate and current information, maintain the confidentiality of their login credentials, avoid sharing accounts with unauthorised individuals, notify the website administrator of suspected unauthorised access and use their accounts in accordance with these Terms.

Users are responsible for activities conducted through their accounts, subject to applicable law. We reserve the right to suspend accounts associated with abuse, suspicious activities or violations of these Terms.

5. Intellectual Property Rights

Unless otherwise stated, the content published on MR M Blog, including original articles, graphics, logos, website designs, tutorials and other materials, belongs to MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD or its respective licensors.

You may read and share links to publicly available articles; reference our content for educational purposes with appropriate acknowledgement; and quote reasonable portions of articles where permitted by applicable copyright law.

You may not reproduce, republish, commercially distribute or modify substantial portions of our content without prior written permission. Third-party trademarks, products, logos and references remain the property of their respective owners.

6. User-Generated Content

Where comments, submissions or other user-generated content are permitted, users remain responsible for the material they publish.

By submitting content, you confirm that you have the necessary rights to publish it; it does not violate another person's rights; it does not contain unlawful, harmful or malicious material; and it does not disclose another person's private information without lawful authority.

You grant MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD a non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to display, store and moderate submitted content for operating the blog. We reserve the right to remove content that violates these Terms or applicable law.

7. Accuracy of Information

We make reasonable efforts to ensure that published information is accurate and relevant. However, technology changes frequently. We do not guarantee that every article, tutorial, example or technical instruction will always be current, complete or error-free.

Users should independently verify information before implementing technical instructions in production environments.

8. Artificial Intelligence and Technical Content

Some content may discuss or demonstrate the use of artificial intelligence tools, automated systems, programming assistants and AI-generated technologies.

AI-generated information may contain inaccuracies; programming examples may require testing and modification; AI tools should be used responsibly and ethically; and users remain responsible for reviewing and validating code before deployment.

MR M Blog does not guarantee the accuracy or security of third-party AI-generated outputs.

9. Third-Party Websites and Services

Our website may contain links to external websites, software platforms, educational resources and third-party services. These websites operate independently.

MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD is not responsible for their content, privacy practices, availability, security or terms of service. Users access third-party websites at their own discretion.

10. Limitation of Liability

To the extent permitted by South African law, MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD shall not be liable for losses arising from temporary website interruptions or technical failures; reliance on inaccurate or outdated educational content; loss of data resulting from circumstances beyond our reasonable control; security incidents caused by unauthorised third-party actions; or use of third-party websites, products or services.

Nothing in these Terms excludes liability where such exclusion is prohibited by applicable law, including liability that cannot lawfully be limited.

11. Website Availability

We reserve the right to update, modify, suspend or discontinue any part of the website without prior notice where reasonably necessary. We do not guarantee uninterrupted availability.

12. Privacy and Personal Information

Your use of MR M Blog is also governed by our Privacy Policy. We process personal information in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA) and other applicable South African laws.

Please read our Privacy Policy to understand how your information is collected, processed, stored and protected.

13. Changes to These Terms

MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD may amend these Terms and Conditions from time to time. Updated versions will be published on this website, together with the applicable effective date.

Continued use of the website after publication of updated Terms constitutes acceptance of the changes to the extent permitted by law.

14. Governing Law

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa. Any disputes shall be dealt with by the competent South African courts, subject to applicable consumer protection and other mandatory legal provisions.

2. PRIVACY POLICY AND DATA PROTECTION NOTICE

MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD
Effective Date: 9 November 2026
Website: https://www.mrmit.co.za
Applicable Legislation: Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA)
Jurisdiction: Republic of South Africa

1. Introduction

MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD respects the privacy and personal information of individuals who access and use MR M Blog.

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, process, store, protect and disclose personal information when individuals visit or interact with our website.

We are committed to processing personal information responsibly and in accordance with the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA). By using our website and voluntarily submitting personal information, you acknowledge that you have been informed of the processing practices described in this policy. Where consent is the applicable lawful basis, consent will be requested separately where required.

2. Responsible Party

For purposes of POPIA, the responsible party is:

Organisation: MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD
Platform: MR M Blog
Country: Republic of South Africa
Privacy Contact: info@mrmit.co.za
Information Officer: Contact via info@mrmit.co.za

The responsible party determines the purposes and means of processing personal information collected through the website.

3. Personal Information We May Collect

Depending on the features you use, we may collect the following categories of information:

3.1 Personal Identification Information

- First name and surname.
- Username or display name.
- Email address.
- Other information voluntarily submitted through forms.

3.2 Account Information

Where user registration is available, we may process usernames, email addresses, password credentials in securely hashed form, account registration dates, account status and account-related security information. We do not intend to store passwords in readable plain text.

3.3 Communication Information

- Email correspondence.
- Contact form submissions.

- Enquiries and feedback.
- Support requests.

3.4 Website Usage Information

Our website or hosting infrastructure may automatically collect certain technical information, including IP addresses, browser type and version, operating system, device information, pages visited, access dates and times, referring websites, and security and server logs.

3.5 Cookies and Similar Technologies

We may use cookies and similar technologies to support website functionality, improve user experience, maintain sessions and understand website usage.

4. Purpose of Collecting Personal Information

We collect and process personal information for legitimate and specified purposes, including:

- Creating and managing user accounts.
- Authenticating users.
- Enabling comments and interactions.
- Responding to enquiries and feedback.
- Providing requested website services.
- Maintaining website functionality.
- Preventing fraud, abuse and unauthorised access.
- Monitoring website performance.
- Improving our articles, tutorials and educational resources.
- Meeting legal and regulatory obligations.

We will not knowingly collect more personal information than is reasonably necessary for the relevant purpose.

5. Lawful Processing of Personal Information

MR M IT SERVICES (PTY) LTD will process personal information in accordance with the applicable lawful grounds under POPIA. Depending on the circumstances, these may include consent provided by the data subject; necessity for concluding or performing a contract; compliance with a legal obligation; protection of legitimate interests where permitted by POPIA; and other lawful grounds recognised under the Act.

Where consent is relied upon, individuals may withdraw their consent, subject to applicable legal requirements and the consequences of withdrawal.

6. Protection of Passwords and Account Security

Where the website provides user registration and authentication, appropriate technical measures will be implemented to protect account information. These measures may include secure password hashing, access controls, authentication procedures, HTTPS encryption, security monitoring, database access restrictions and regular software updates.

Users should create strong passwords and avoid sharing their login credentials.

7. Sharing and Disclosure of Personal Information

We do not sell or rent users' personal information to third parties. However, personal information may be shared where reasonably necessary with:

7.1 Hosting and Infrastructure Providers

Website hosting providers may process technical information and server logs to maintain the website.

7.2 Email and Communication Providers

Email service providers may process information required to deliver website notifications and respond to enquiries.

7.3 Technical Service Providers

Authorised service providers may assist with website maintenance, security, analytics and technical support.

7.4 Legal and Regulatory Authorities

Information may be disclosed where required by law, a valid court order or a lawful regulatory request.

Where third parties process personal information on our behalf, we will take appropriate steps to ensure that their processing complies with applicable POPIA requirements.

8. International Data Transfers

Some hosting, email, analytics or other technology providers may store or process information outside South Africa. Where personal information is transferred outside South Africa, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that the transfer complies with section 72 of POPIA.

This may include ensuring that the receiving country or organisation provides an adequate level of protection or that another lawful transfer condition is satisfied.

9. Cookies and Tracking Technologies

Cookies are small text files stored on a user's device when visiting a website. MR M Blog may use:

Essential Cookies: Required for core website functionality, such as authentication and session management.

Preference Cookies: Used to remember user preferences where available.

Analytics Cookies: Used, where enabled, to understand visitor behaviour and improve website performance.

Users may manage cookies through their browser settings. Disabling certain cookies may affect website functionality. Where consent is legally required for non-essential cookies or tracking technologies, we will request it before activating them.

10. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law.

Retention periods may depend on the purpose for which information was collected; the nature of the information; legal and regulatory requirements; security and recordkeeping requirements; and the existence of an ongoing relationship with the user.

When information is no longer required, it will be securely deleted, destroyed or de-identified where appropriate.

11. Information Security

We take reasonable and appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal information against unauthorised access, accidental loss, unlawful disclosure, unauthorised alteration, destruction, misuse or interference.

Although we implement reasonable security measures, no internet-based system can guarantee absolute security. Users should exercise caution when transmitting information over the internet.

12. Personal Information Breaches

If we have reasonable grounds to believe that personal information has been accessed or acquired by an unauthorised person, we will take appropriate steps in accordance with section 22 of POPIA.

This may include investigating the incident, taking steps to contain the breach, assessing the information affected, notifying the Information Regulator and notifying affected data subjects as soon as reasonably possible, subject to applicable legal requirements.

13. Your Rights Under POPIA

As a data subject, you have rights under POPIA, subject to applicable legal limitations. These include:

13.1 Right to Be Informed: You have the right to know when your personal information is being collected and how it will be used.

13.2 Right of Access: You may request confirmation of whether we hold personal information about you and request access to that information.

13.3 Right to Correction: You may request the correction or updating of inaccurate, incomplete or misleading personal information.

13.4 Right to Deletion: You may request the deletion or destruction of personal information where legally justified.

13.5 Right to Object: You may object to certain processing activities in accordance with section 11(3) of POPIA.

13.6 Right to Withdraw Consent: Where processing is based on consent, you may withdraw your consent.

13.7 Right to Complain: You may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator if you believe your personal information has been processed unlawfully.

14. How to Exercise Your Privacy Rights

To exercise your rights, submit a written request to info@mrmit.co.za. Please include your full name, your registered email address where applicable, the nature of your request and sufficient information to help us identify the relevant records.

We may request reasonable verification of your identity before processing a request. Requests will be handled in accordance with POPIA and applicable regulations.

15. Children's Personal Information

Our website is primarily intended for a general audience. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children in circumstances where processing would be unlawful.

Where POPIA requires consent from a competent person for the processing of a child's personal information, the necessary consent will be obtained before processing.

16. Third-Party Links

Our blog may contain links to external websites, educational platforms, software providers and other online resources. We do not control the privacy practices of external websites.

Users are encouraged to review the privacy policies of third-party platforms before submitting personal information to them.

17. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy when necessary to reflect changes in legislation, technology, website functionality or our information-processing practices. Updated versions will be published on MR M Blog with a revised effective date.
